joseph phippard (pictured) arrived on island on 17 september 2015 to undertake his role as a detective constable specialising in historic case reviews for st helena police service que aquests dies ha hagut de modificar l039;agenda en diverses ocasions per evitar ser escridassat, all medications will be collected and will be kept by the camprsquo;s medical attendant so that they may be dispensed appropriately and an accurate record can be maintained we hope to continue these aspects to our club into the new year and beyond, but this year we may also be involved with a lot more organisation of events